

Action Plan 2023-24

International Lucy Richardson

SDP Target 1 – To ensure ‘quality first teaching’ is achieved throughout the school, especially in maths and writing, through consistent delivery approaches and adherence to the sequential learning provided by The Vine Curriculum and carefully selected schemes that are chosen and adapted to meet the need of The Vine.

SDP Target 2 – To strengthen the EYFS (Preschool & Reception) curriculum, assessment and practice to improve outcomes for all children and close the gap for disadvantaged children.

SDP Target 3 – To ensure that pupils continue to have a love of reading and that reading remains at the centre of the curriculum.

SDP Target 4– To ensure that the vision, the ethos and the curriculum at The Vine enables the pupils to develop holistically.

How do these targets link to our Christian vision?

1. This is our school being proud of our school, sharing it with other schools and finding out about schools similar to ours in other parts of the world Love of one another, love of mankind developing an understanding of lifestyles and cultures different to our own, spreads tolerance and acceptance & understanding of others Love of God through finding out more about our link schools, pupils will discover how other faith schools across the world worship God
2. Let peace dwell here Let love abide here using the joy of reading to promote peace and understanding of others. Developing a sense of tolerance and acceptance of others
3. Let the rooms be full of contentment, love of life itself, many hearts create a school learning through play from an early age about life in another part of the world, bringing joy through play, learning to take enjoyment from simple pleasures
