CULTURAL CAPITAL AT THE VINE

CULTURAL CAPITAL AS DEFINED BY OFSTED 2019:

... the essential knowledge that pupils need to be educated citizens, introducing them to the best that has been thought and said, and helping to engender an appreciation of human creativity and achievement.

For example, it's about being able to learn about and experience things that are, for many, outside their daily experience.

At The Vine our curriculum and our teaching methods are carefully designed to maximise pupils' knowledge retention, developing their skills (that will be transferable into the next stage of their education) and deepen awareness of the role we all play as 21st century citizens.

As a school that has such a diverse intake and is ecumenical in foundation, the focus on being an international school runs through our curriculum. Our international learning has been recognized and awarded the Full International Award by the British Council for our outstanding work. The Global Values play a key role in each year group across the whole school. Our International partnerships enhance what is taught; these include links with Spain, Kenya, Isle of Man, Australia, and Japan, learning is shared and best teaching practice is celebrated. Promoting the fundamental British values has enabled us to reinforce our current ethos. This enables our pupils to gain a greater understanding of local, national and global issues. We believe we effectively promote the pupils' spiritual, moral, cultural and social development and prepare them well for life in Britain and their role in the wider world. Pupils are exposed to a variety of cultural learning experiences in all areas of the curriculum both within the school environment and beyond. We ensure we enrich our curriculum and build the pupil's 'cultural capital', by planning curriculum focus days, weeks and celebrations, visitors in and visits out which we believe to help provide "the essential knowledge that children need to be educated citizens" as defined by Ofsted 2019.
